LIVE LIFE WELL WEEK

Glenbard North students and staff will celebrate Live Life Well Week 2020 from February 17th-21st. Live Life Well Week is a series of special events designed to inspire, educate, and enhance well-being and healthy decision-making. This year's theme is "Believe in Yourself".

The week kicks off with the district-wide Make a Difference Monday - President's Day of Service event from 11:30am - 1:00pm Monday, February 17 at the Ackerman Sports and Fitness Center in Glen Ellyn. All students are invited to join in making blankets that will be donated to local hospitals for children with cancer as part of Project Linus. Pizza and blanket making supplies will be provided.

During the week, students will hear from Ben Glen the "Chalkguy" who is an award winning artist, speaker and author. Ben will share his personal journey as a student with ADHD, as well as his amazing live art demonstration. The community will also have the opportunity to hear Ben at a free Glenbard Parent Series on Wednesday, February 19 at 7:00pm at Glenbard North High School. Additionally, a pre-meeting program titled "Marijuana is Legal: What you Need to Know" with Matthew Quinn from Rosecrance will be held at 6:30pm.

Teacher in-class lessons will focus on self-awareness and self-care resources for students. Students will be provided with information about the dangers of vaping.

Thanks go out to our Students Against Destructive Decisions/SFS Club, school staff, and administration for their efforts on behalf of this important week.

A message from the Superintendent

Creates is a key competency in our Profile of a Graduate

In the past few newsletters, I've shared with you information about our Profile of a Graduate, which features six competencies we want every graduate to embody:

A Glenbard Graduate:

- Collaborates
- Communicates
- Thinks Critically
- Embraces Diversity
- Creates
- Is Self-Empowered

Today, let's look at the competency of creates. We want our students to have opportunities to create in the traditional sense - music, writing and art. We also want them to have the chance to create podcasts and videos, as well as create solutions to real problems in the world. We want to empower them to generate original ideas, solutions and products.

Classroom Example

As an example of what this competency looks like in the classroom, sophomores learning about satire in an English class created commercials and public service announcements. They used green screen, Filmmaker Pro, teleprompter app, Schoology and their knowledge of satirical devices to create a product that required them to assess, evaluate and portray characters from a text they read.

Competency Descriptions

The competencies in our Profile of a Graduate are accompanied by descriptions that were developed by department chairs from each of our schools, along with school and district administrators. We worked through several iterations and used resources from EdLeader21, a national network of educators implementing competencies into their systems.

The following are the descriptions that accompany creates:

- Solves real problems that are passion and purpose driven, in local community and around the world

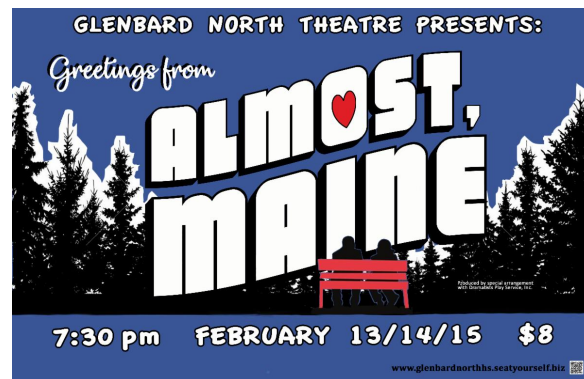

- Generates original ideas, solutions and products in imaginative ways
- Open and responsive to new ideas and perspectives
- Extracts learning from failure to move ideas forward
- Reflects meaningfully on feedback while able to set aside personal biases.
- Novel use and application of prior knowledge

Next Steps

We are customizing competency descriptors by content and subject area. Whether it's our core courses or electives, department chairs are developing descriptions specific to their content area.

Glenbard North Theatre will present their winter production, "Almost, Maine" February 13th, 14th, and 15th, 2020.

The Northern Lights are in the sky and love is in the frosty air in John Cariani's Almost, Maine, a place that's so far north it's almost not in the United States—it's almost in Canada. And it almost doesn't exist, because its residents never got around to getting organized. So it's just...Almost. One cold, clear, winter night as the aurora borealis hovers in the star-filled sky above, the residents of Almost find themselves falling in and out of love in unexpected and hilarious ways. Relationships end, begin, and change as strangers become friends, friends become lovers, and lovers turn into strangers in this delightful midwinter night's dream.

Cast includes Wilson King as Pete, Keely Graf as Ginette, Eric Perez as East, Sarah Loster as Glory, Pavel Paunov as Jimmy, Amalia Kovich as Sandrine, Alyssa DiVarco as Waitress, Molly Heideman as Marvalyn, Logan Van Lerberghe as Steve, Dylan Pyskaty as Gayle, Alex Lazzara as Lendall, Dennis Mathew as Randy, Tony Boccia as Chad, Anthony Butera as Phil, Karina Aguilar as Marci, Lucy Nguyen as Hope, Jarred Baligod as Daniel, Anneliese Cornejo-Garcia as Rhonda, and Sam Falco as Dave.

Jolaine Orlin is the director, Ricardo Lopez is the technical director, Nathan King is the sound/lights director, Marissa Talarico is the props director, and Robyn Scurek is the costumes/publicity director.

"Almost, Maine" will be presented in the Little Theatre at Glenbard North High School, 990 Kuhn Road in Carol Stream. All performances start at 7:30 p.m. Tickets are $8 and can be purchased online at glenbardnorthhs.seatyourself.biz ($1 fee per ticket applied to online purchases). Tickets will also be available at the door.
